New York Tribune.

FRIDAY, JULY 18, 1915.

ed and published daily to The Tribune Association York companion Order M. Beid, Provident ogers, Secretary and Treasurer, Address No. 15s Naszau Street, New York. SUBSCRIPTION RATES -By Mail, Postage Paid, outside perance drinks."

One pear One year SUNDAY ONLY: DAILY ONLY

Stand By the President!

alien interests when national honor and and equipment.

for Republicans to do. Their support of a President defending American lives and rights must be complete and unfaltering. American Republicans must replace Ger-American Republicans must replace Ger-American lives in the national alignment.

Many Democrats in the national alignment. The President must know and feel that at proof of their desire to preserve its in-the water's edge all questions of parusan tegrity. Nevertheless, when peace is con-cluded, we may be sure that the relations is to commit political suicide.

dent is consurable for the moderation of his policy, they should not play into Germany Republicans believe that the Frestdent is censurable for the moderation of his policy, they should not play into German hands now by withholding support when Mr. Wilson is being assailed for what he has done.

In the moment of national peril German agents and intrigues divided the Liberal

Moderate agents and entered in the form a pervertedly partisan point of view, to see the scathingly satirical and prejudiced fashioned attitude of the German hausfrau, withen and edition of view, to see the scathingly satirical and prejudiced fashioned attitude of the German hausfrau, with the belief in the rectars and supposedly worth it?

Moderate agents and intrigues divided the Liberal

Moderate agents and intrigues divided the Liberal

Moderate agents and entered in perjudiced of the German hausfrau, withen and office of the German hausfrau, withen and other civilization. We cannot space advocates were northwing to refine the policy of the nursery only sugget a point of view, to see the scathingly satirical and prejudiced fashioned attitude of the German hausfrau, with the relation of their uncompromising and there are intrigues of their uncompromising and more worth in the means, like the Greece of antiquity, the entered in period of view, to see the scathingly satirical and prejudiced articles eminent "neutral" Americana as event here.

France is, like the Greece of antiquity, the entered in period of view, to see the scathingly satirical and prejudiced articl fence of American lives and liberties is sumes that the German submarine comnot merely a patriotic duty, it is pecu-in torpedoing the Nebraskan without Warly the duty of the Republican party in warning if the latter had been what he drink itself. Mr. Hobson, on the other hand, is obviously in earnest when he denounces it and calls it names. No other reformer has ever shown so real a detesting of the memorandum for the reformer has ever shown so real a detesting of the memorandum for the structive in lives of English-speaking people, and because she can easily stand a licking. To the Editor of The Tribune.

Exorcising the Demon.

Sir: I beg you to accept my personal thanks for the excellent article published July 14 remainder the title "On Bastile Day." I am sure cratic Russia and here is where the eternal every Frenchman in America will be and because she can easily stand a licking.

But it was a sin against society for demonstrative and calls it names. Sir: I beg you to accept my personal thanks for the excellent article published July 14 remainder the title "On Bastile Day." I am sure cratic Russia and here is where the eternal reformer has ever shown so real a detestant of the structive in lives of English-Speaking people.

Their attention [that of neutrals] is further thermore called to the fact that it is of the such contempt and scorn of the very to recommend to their own vessels to the such as the such contempt and scorn of the very to recommend to their own vessels to the such as t cretion of a living organism."

de-alcoholizing the drinkers why not de-alcoholize the drinks? This is what a British Neutral nations were not intimidated Grand Army which set out for Russia. More feeling. patriot, a Fellow of the Chemical Society, by that lawless threat. Their vessels con-Germans fell in the attacks on Ypres last Mr. O. Overbeck, has lately undertaken to tinued to traverse the "war zone," as they autumn than were lost on both sides in Gravedo, and he offers the use of his process were at perfect liberty to do, subject only lotte, the bloodlest battle in the Franco-Prusfree of all charge to the government during to the exercise by Germany of the right sian War. Every one says that this is the the period of the war. By the utilization of visitation and search. After the Amerof the waste carbon dioxide gas ordinary ican steamer Gulflight was torpeded brewed beer can, he says, "be rendered (1) without warning the government at Perlin testetal as lower than the biggest.

Praise.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Your articles of Mond how much the biggest. semi-teetotal as lager heer; (2) teetotal saw that it could not make even a preto ginger beer stage (1 per cent alcohol), tence of defending such action. It thereor (3) converted into a meticulous total fore acknowledged to the United States To the Editor of The Tribune.

this improved process: stouts of all sel flying a neutral flag. ciders, too, and wines. And the best is United States and Germany on this point. New York, July 14, 1915.

that the flavor in every case is quite un- The Berlin authorities describe the attack affected. The editor of "The Spectator" on the Nebraskan as "an unfortunate ac-First to Last—the Truth: News—Editorials was lately induced to try a bottle of Mr. cident," due to the mistaken idea of the Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an Overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an overbeck's denatured beer and testifies "to submarine commander that she was an overbeck to submarine commander that she was a submarine commander that she was a finding it extremely palatable and also enemy ship.

very digestible." He remarks that "it was bright and pleasant to look at" and that it glad to accept reparation if it had been deepest appreciation, as an American, for "did not taste of varnish, like most tem- offered without this abiter dictum explana- your editorial "On Bastile Day." From many sanguine in claiming "complete success in aggravate the graver issue on which the bigher ideals of mankind which you voice so nobly in this superb editorial. But never day," but he has gone a good way in denotice that the German Government related 1 expected to see in an American journal serves the license to sink unarmed mersuch at 1 expected to see in an American journal such a tribute as this you render to the FOREIGN RATES

DALLY AND SUNDAY.
DALLY AND SUNDAY.
DALLY AND SUNDAY.
SUNDAY ONLY

Vising a harmless drink that does not taste serves the license to sink unarmed mersuch a tribute as this you render to the such a tribute as this you render to the data of the such a tribute as this you render to the path and such a tribute as this you render to the such a tribute as this you render to the data of the such a tribute as this you render to the such as AND ONE WILLIAM ONLY to harmless something that in point of flavor rules of warfare at sea, without ascerfoundly true.

1.20 One William ONLY to will pass for beer or wine is undoubtedly taining whether or not they carry American for you have harmless something that in point of flavor rules of warfare at sea, without ascer section with a sea, without ascerfor you have expressed the historic truth about the croic stands of France for the salvation of our world from the triumpl. of cause undrinkable.

declared their intention of consulting the edged and fully safeguarded. At the present moment a deliberate and to the conduct of the war and the welfare to the conduct of the war and the welfare. farreaching effort is being made to coerce of the empire in the present crisis, but it A pretty foot should be seen and not Sir: I wrote some weeks ago expressing my

Thanks to Mr. Bryan the Democratic satisfied with the part played by her ings, the sort that lace up the back or up of expressing the debt I owe you for the two party has been divided, and the prospect dominions and colonies. With one accord the side; shoes suffering from dementia recent editorials one on "A War of Ideas" party has been divided, and the pro-good dominions and colonies. With one accord the side; shoes suffering from dementia Ameri- and the other in this morning's paper, "On paranoia, dementia Ameri- Bastile Day." I have felt for some time that the peril for Mr. Wilson in the future if India and Australia rallied to the decana or megalomania—all, all must go. Bastile Day." I have felt for some time that the reading world in this country were not the perit for the fence of the empire. Four days before the The several associations of boot and the reading world in this country were not fair in their thinking to the great work To give point to this method German wavering government in England that if propagandist journals are already print- war must come Canada would regard the one woman out of five has been purchas- While I am trying to be neutral in my ing tabulations of the loss of Democratic quarrel as hers, too, and play her part, ing their discordant product. But here in thinking of this terrible calamity, I find that ing tabulations of the loss of Democratic quarrel as hers, too, and play her part, ing their discordant product. But here in this log of this derivative works incident to Mr. Wilson's performance and the control of his duty. This is an impudent and into an and as many more are now under training sunny days in certain avenues of politic and the English navy. tolerable assertion of the doctrine that the at home. The response to the call has been traffic as if the pedal promenade would I thank you sincerely for this splendid, President of the United States must think splendid in every province; only, as in move of the votes of those frankly devoted to England, there is still a shortage in arms The stones of Rome to rise and mutiny.

In this situation there is just one thing Canada nor any of the other dominions for Republicans to do. Their support of a will be content to suffer their destinies to cluded, we may be sure that the relations of the world.

It would be better for the Republican It would be better for the Republican Shoes may be laced or buttoned, but lacing seas dominions must be profoundly modified.

Advancement of Civilization Would between the mother country and the overseast dominions must be profoundly modified.

Be Furthered by Her Victory Shoes may be laced or buttoned, but lacing starte and dismembers have started and save the proper in style the cloth must be black. Once more, thanks from the bettern of my between the mother country and the overseast who would started and save the proper in style the cloth must be black. Once more, thanks from the bettern of my between the mother country and the overseast who would started and save the proper in style the cloth must be black. Shoes may be laced or buttoned, but lacing started and save the proper in style the cloth must be black. Once more, thanks from the bettern of the world. Once more, thanks from the world. Once more party to indorse Woodrow Wilson in 1916 fied. In recent years signs of uneasiness than to permit the principle to be estab- have multiplied in Canada and elsewhere, will little feet appear hold and big feet.

Will be in front."

How infinitely refreshing! No longer reading soldiers in the trenches.

Sir: Apropos of Mr. Bigelow reorganization of the whole empire will overwhelming. Modesty will prevail as to commit political suicide.

Let no American, let no Republican be have to be compassed.

German statesmen misinterpreted the deceived by the farreaching and indus- signs when they predicted that a great

But the German note, though confirming members of the convention have entirely lost ing your article. party in Great Britain and threw the whole administration into confusion. The same thing has been attempted here. In England the Conservatives saved the day by sacrificing political interest to national welfare. Republicans in this country can welfare. Republicans in this country can seem the same thing has been attempted here. In the decision of the Berlin government to sight of the fact that the new constitution shower as neu-sight of the fact that the new constitution observe international law so far as neusciption into confusion. The sight of the fact that the new constitution observe international law so far as neusciption into confusion. The sight of the fact that the new constitution observe international law so far as neusciption into confusion. The sight of the fact that the new constitution observe international law so far as neusciption into confusion. The sight of the fact that the new constitution observe international law so far as neusciption into confusion. The sight of the fact that the new constitution observe international law so far as neusciption into confusion. The sight of the fact that the new constitution observe international law so far as neuscipt in the decision of the Berlin government to sight of the fact that the new constitution observe international law so far as neuscipt in the decision of the Berlin government to sight of the fact that the new constitution.

Should Be Reread.

St. Swithin's Day has passed without a stand councils of the nation.

Italy will iam a human being in my sympathies. I know that the Germanic allies are that hot-headedness does not pay. She will learn to control that excitable, hot blood of hers and will have a control that excitable, hot blood of hers and will have a control that the new constitution.

St. Swithin's Day has passed without a solution of the Berlin government to control that excitable, hot blood of hers and councils of the fact that the clear that hot-headedness does not pay. She will learn to control that excitable, hot blood of hers an welfare. Republicans in this country can chantmen on which Americans happen to be passengers. To support President Wilson in his de- The latest note from Berlin coolly as-

New of its history and its pretensions. really supposed her to be—an enemy merchaniman. So far as concerns the protest which this government has made Mr. Hobson and all the good people who against the Lusitania massacre-the pro-Mr. Hobson and all the good people who against the boltana mass of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because hehind and mistakenly calling it a "peace"? A truce was trying so earnestly to de-alcoholize the tost on which the whole future of our relations with Germany hinges—Berlin is and my voice broke in it. Thank you for all the Russian monijk, because hehind and my voice broke in it. Thank you for all the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

After a careful review of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

After a careful review of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because and strategy of waterloo, and at any other time than this the whole future of our relations with Germany hinges—Berlin is and my voice broke in it. Thank you for all the total manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the battle of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the Russian monijk, because of a grateful manked.

To day is the centenary of the Russian monijk, because of their minds entirely to the reform of con- most unpleasant fact rubbed in by the sion. As a military event, what is happening but "On Bastile Day" is an inspiration. sumers they would pay a little attention Nebraskan communication, which, while it now makes Waterloo look very small. There to the reform of the thing consumed. It concedes one right which we have claimed, were fewer than 24,000 British troops at Wais the more wonderful that Mr. Hobson clearly challenges another right which we terloo, and the casualties, though they made has not set an example in this respect be- have undertaken to assert and enforce as Wellington weep, did not reach 7,000. At "Beautiful Tribute to France." cause on all occasions he has exhibited a a duty which we owe to our own interest Neuve Chapelle, though it was a second-rate To the Editor of The Tribune.

him have talked of rum as a thief, an enemy, a demon, and so forth, but only in a rhetorical and more or less perfunctory away. For the rest, they have been content to use up their eloquence in describing the frightful consequences of drinking that have shown little or no spite toward hand, is obviously in earnest when he dehand, is obviously in earnest when he dehand a companying the "war zone" order the new of the Crimean War was under 3,000, and, who care enough for our country's history to remember that we ower independence to the fract and admire strong and the string the rest, they have been content to use up their eloquence in describing the frightful consequences of drinking and have shown little or no spite toward hand, is obviously in earnest when he dehand, is obviously in earnest when he dehand and more or less perfunctory date in the Nebraskan goes, that became enough for our country's history to without being the present geat outbreak. Life—so evolution teaches us—is a considered and admire the strong and the heroic aspect presented by that great native strong days of the war, it is only for defence that democracies can and denounced and admire the heroic aspect presented by that great native strong and the heroic aspect presented by that great native strong and the heroic aspect presented by that great native strong and the heroic aspect presented by the first strong and denounced are the heroic aspect of the same strong and the heroic aspect presented by the strong and the

with such contempt and scorn of the very process of fermentation. No other reformer has attacked so scathingly "the lowest form of life known" or betrayed so say has orders to abstain from all violence of the such contempt and scorn of the very thermore called to the lact that it is of faster rate than both sides together did in faster rate than both sides together did in that war.

Great as our casualties are, they are small by comparison with those of the other powlowest form of life known" or betrayed so says has orders to abstain from all violence by comparison with those of the other powlowest form of life known" or betrayed so says has orders to abstain from all violence by comparison with those of the other powlowest form of life known" or betrayed so says has orders to abstain from all violence by comparison with those of the other powlowest form of life known" or betrayed so says has orders to abstain from all violence by comparison with those of the other powlowest form of life known" or betrayed so says has orders to abstain from all violence by comparison with those of the other powlowest form of life known. wholesome a horror of "the loathsome ex. against neutral vessels recognizable as such; ers engaged. Battles nowadays last a week but in view of the hazards of war and of the for every day that they lasted a hundred misuse of the neutral flags ordered by the years ago; but, even so, the rate of slaughter To the Editor of The Tribune.

You can purchase merchandise advertised in THE TRIBUNE with absolute safety—for in THE TRIBUNE with absolute safety—for if dissatisfaction results in any case THE TRIBUNE guarantees to pay your money back upon request. No red tape, no quibbling. We make good promptly if the advertiser does not.

Britain and the Dominions.

The news that the Canadian Premier attended a meeting of the British Cabinet in London on Wednesday is in no way survertiser does not.

Britain and the Dominions.

The news that the Canadian Premier attended a meeting of the British Cabinet in London on Wednesday is in no way survertiser does not.

Britain and the Dominions.

The news that the Canadian Premier attended a meeting of the British Cabinet in London on Wednesday is in no way survertiser does not.

Britain and the Dominions.

The news that the Canadian Premier attended a meeting of the British Cabinet in London on Wednesday is in no way survertiser does not.

F. B. NASH.

New York, July 14, 1915.

the President of the United States in the is safe to predict that more considerable heard; so, at last, the welcome edict has been appreciation of the great work you have the President of the United States in the is safe to predict that more considerable heard; so, at last, the welcome edict has gone forth: No more articulate footwear for women. The wine colored, the pale light of history and for women. The wine colored, the pale light of present day conditions. I feel, gold, the alabaster shoes with black factory and the light of present day conditions. I feel, gold, the alabaster shoes with black factory and the light of present day conditions. I feel, gold, the alabaster shoes with black factory and the light of present day conditions.

> declaration of war Sir Robert Borden un- shoe purveyors, now in convention assem- which France has done since the battle of dertook the responsibility of assuring the bled, have discovered, after a statistical the Marne.

It must be very clear, however, to all Happily this danger should abate from thoughtful people in England that neither now on. The one in five (whatever her lished that to defend American interests and it is safe to say that in due time a will little feet appear bold and big feet

LOSSES IN THE WAR

Look Insignificant.

(From The Manchester Guardian)

Gratitude.

abstainer's drink, without alteration of and to all other neutral nations its obligation to refrain from attacking without worthy of official recognition by the French haracter."

It is not beer alone that is subject to notice and proper investigation any veshave written it, and I am sensible of a feelthis improved process: stouts of all sel flying a neutral flag.

the same way: There is no longer an issue between the and passing it along to others. T. E. LANE.

"ON BASTILE DAY."

perance drinks."

It may be that Mr. Overbeck is overapology undoes itself, for it can only I had long since arrived at the conclusions sates New York and the conclusions are story only 1 may be that Mr. Overbeck is overapplicable of the sanguing in claiming "complete success in aggravate the graver issue on which the sanguing in claiming "complete success in aggravate the graver issue on which the sanguing in claiming "complete success in aggravate the graver issue on which the sanguing in claiming "complete success in aggravate the graver issue on which the sanguing in claiming "complete success in aggravate the graver issue on which the sanguing in claiming "complete success in aggravate the graver issue on which the sanguing in the most burning question of the two countries are still at odds. It is a sanguing in the most burning question of the two countries are still at odds. It is a sanguing in the most burning question of the two countries are still at odds. It is a sanguing in the most burning question of the two countries are still at odds.

Entered at the Postonion at New York as Second Class have for the most part been harmless be- We shall always be on the ragged edge barbarism—with all it means of terror and as Germany declines to live up to the have made the confession the English speak-

Serves a Splendid Purpose.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Your appreciative study of her deserved tribute to the great people France. FRED. S. GOODMAN. New York, July 14, 1915.

The President must know and feel that at proof of their desire to preserve its in-France, the Torch Bearer.

Why doesn't the Kaiser demand a jury that I have seen, and I wish all the people rendered to mankind by giving the world trial, too?

I take pleasure in congratulating you K. D. ZAKARIAS. New York, July 14, 1915.

I have waited long in value. It is "On Ras. liberty, equality and fraternity into the contile Day," and it is glorious. I read it aloud and my voice broke in it. Thank you for all like the Russian moujik, because behind and mistakenly calling it a "peace"? A truce and mistakenly calling it a "peace"? A truce After a careful review of these manly de-To-day is the centenary of the battle of tile Day," and it is glorious. I read it aloud sciousness of a grateful markind.

Eaton, N. H., July 14, 1915.

cause on all occasions he has exhibited a duty which we owe to our own interest battle as the size of battles in this war goes. Sir: Permit me to express my appreciation of the beautiful tribute to France in wardows possibilities.

Sir: Permit me to express my appreciation of the beautiful tribute to France in wardows possibilities.

Now, the clip It is true that other reformers before him have talked of rum as a thief, an enemy, a demon, and so forth, but only in the Nebraskan goes, that became unavoid we lost twice as hany. The total number of the beautiful tribute to France in mendous possibilities. British lives lost in action during the whole of the Crimean War was under 3,000, and, who care enough for our country's history to without being too precise in our figures, the remember that we owe our independence to Life—so evolution.

"Emotion, Pride, Gratitude."

New York, July 14, 1915.

Praise.

strongest and most eloquent utterances I Germanic armies.) have seen anywhere concerning the European Germany will win this war not only be-New York, July 14, 1915.

Blessings.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: God bless you on this Bastile anniver- self-sacrificing and willing to die for the sary day for those good words of France. New York, July 14, 1915.

GONE

THE

Her feet beneath her petticont
Like little mice stole in and out,
As if they feared the light.

Incidentally, the prices for all shoes will

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: Your splendid editorial in this morning's Tribune goes straight to the heart of those who sympathize with the French in from a perventedly partisan point of view, to from a pervertedly partisan point of view, to be rejuvenated. She will learn that the old- and cavalry) of the nursery only suggest a day, July 14. In fact, it is the best editorial [well realize the services England has not know. emilenet to mankind by giving the world the entirent sons like Shakespears, Newton, Darwin, Lister, and by giving the world the ago, the most important and most honeful the heavy leather armor the fatality was Magna Charta and a parliamentary form of government. I concede, also, with the greatest pleasure, that wherever England colonized a most liberal form.

ERNEST L. MANDEL.

New York July 8, 1915. a most liberal form of government was given

An Inspiration.

the natives.
I love the French. Everybody does. They gave the world Rousseau and Voltaire and Fasteur, and they have sown the ideals of Sir: Why are our so called mendous possibilities, pressing internal and national problems. As a consequence, however, poor Belgium lies prestrate and poor France is bleeding to death. Few people realize that the French government—being afraid of the cense-Why is it, then, that he does not attack the wretched thing instead of attempting possible to prevent a neutral vessel from better the wretched thing instead of attempting possible to prevent a neutral vessel from better the wretched thing instead of coming the victim of an attack intended to the consequence its willing victims? Instead of the consequence is willing victims? Instead of the consequence of the prevent a neutral vessel from better that the French square ago; but, even so, the rate of stangage of the consequence of the prevent a neutral vessel from better that the French square ago; but, even so, the rate of stangage of the consequence of the consequence of the same deep sentiment of emotion. Sir: I have cabled your editorial "On Rasgovernment being afraid of the consequence of her suicidal foreign policy—does not death. Few people realize that the French government being afraid of the consequence of her suicidal foreign policy—does frame will read it. I do not doubt she will to consequence of her suicidal foreign policy—does not death. Few people realize that the French government being afraid of the consequence of her suicidal foreign policy—does not death. Few people realize that the French government being afraid of the consequence of her suicidal foreign policy—does not death. Few people realize that the French government being afraid of the consequence of her suicidal foreign policy—does not death. Few people realize that the French government being afraid of the consequence of her suicidal foreign policy—does not death. Few people realize that the French government being afraid of the consequence of her suicidal foreign policy—does not death. Few people realize that the French government being afraid of the consequence of her suicidal foreign policy—does not death. Few people realize that the French government being afraid of the consequence of her suicidal foreign policy—does not death. Few people realize that the French for the first that the French government it will not always be the p Redacteur, Petit Parisien. whole of France. (At least, so I am told.)

The handful of people representing the gov-Sir: Your articles of Monday and to-day, wise, why that frenzied advertising for re-A War of Ideas" and "On Bastile Day," respectively, are about the most forcible. There are over 3,000,000 volunteers in the "A War of Ideas" and "On Bastile Day," re- cruits and threats against the workmen?

> OLD LAWYER. | cause she is the youngest and strongest, but also because she does most for her people A thorough, efficient school system, or ganization, science, patriotism, honor, clean municipal government and lots of social legislation are bound to make a nation loyal,

> > There are no Churchill or Caillaux scan-

WHY GERMANY SHOULD WIN dals in Germany, but there is a united nation

CONSTITUTIONAL

LOVE'S LABOR LOST.

Sir: Apropos of Mr. Bigelow's recent let- that her system of education and the loose- Sir: The time has come when it is practiter to "The New York Times," in which he ness of her governmental system are not up cal and fashionable to speak of "preparedries to prove that there are no gentlemen in to date. She will learn that too much indi-Prussia, permit me to say that newspaper vidualism in a national crisis is bad, and that If we are to become a fearless people we

Let the Americans remember the proclama- to meet a speedy retirement by the prepor

Real Peace Wanted.

Sir: Why are our so-called "peace advo-great race, the race of Tolstoy, Turgeniev. of the parties. Such a condition if now merely by assiduous practice, and in moments mendeleeff and Tschnikowsky. achieved would entail constant and increasing of dire distress can calmly "pick up" his So you see I am not prejudiced.

England and France represent the musty, bygone past, Russia typifies the coming race, but Germany, in that wonderfully virile of warfare such preparation will be costly prime of her national life, represents the elegions, splendid present, with all its tre-life and nation.

achieved would entail constant and increasing of dire distress can calmiy pick up the hole, refusing to play it ball and give up the hole, refusing to play it bull and give up the hole, r

Now, the elimination of the "autocrat" is the country of to-day, and that's the certain cure of the curse of war. A free people will find it impossible to agree to inpeople will find it impossible to agree to in- front we note the loss of tennis and possible and defence unnecessary.

A peace founded on justice will then folsult. Let us work and pray for such a peace To the Editor of The Tribune. alliance with Russia, would be at peace to-day, attending to the solution of her urgently sary.

W. P. T.

Madison, N. J., July 10, 1915.

Guard the Judges from Cranks. To the Editor of The Tribune.

There are more Austrian prisoners feel the same deep sentiment of emotion. French papers do not publish the German houses those in authority to see to it that our pride and gratitude I have felt and an still of the set out for Russia. More feeling.

France will read it. I do not doubt see will not dare to publish the German houses those in authority to see to it that our pride and gratitude I have felt and an still pride and gratitude I have felt and an still described for the war, and that there are more public officials and also our public buildings grace to take what's coming because it described for the server of the war, and that there are more public officials and also our public o should be carefully guarded. At the present serves it, and hold its peace? INDIGNANT OBSERVER. England has no business to be in this war, time one may venture the question, Are our criminal court judges in the General Sesernment had no business to declare war in sions and police courts amply and carefully the name of an empire when her people do guarded against any unpleasant incident, or not have their heart and soul in it. Other- the least outbreak, riot, or an attempt to free > also true that "an ounce of prevention is and statesmanlike words of Bishop Breat worth a pound of cure."

> TRIBUNE READER.

New York, July 6, 1915.

Impartial Justice. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Each of the Adamses is fine. H. W. WESSELLS, Sr. Washington, D. C., July 9, 1915.

GAMES AND VALOR

a Germanic victory: England will realize To the Editor of The Tribune.

shockingly great, so the rules became a national issue and were diluted by the introduction of larger space units, which allowed a boy to emerge from college with his bones unbroken, which in some cases displeased the youth, but never his parents. After many years of tennis, baseball and football there appeared the game of g

New York, July 12, 1915.

"He Did It!"

Sir: This last note from Germany makes me seek this opportunity of saying out load what has been long rising in my heart regarding the standing of the culprit who, brought to book, always cries, "He did it!" What is the standing of the lad in family or Sir: In view of the number of cranks community whose practice this is? But from unning amuck during the last year, it be-

New York, July 41, 1915.

Suggests a Mentor.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: This morning I read in your paper coming as I know they do from a man qualiled to speak out of a rich experience.

May I commend to your consideration all such and similar pronouncements as a substitute for india. stitute for inflammatory letters and editorials such as yours of July Fourth? They are centributions of inestimable value to our national ideals and our national welfare.

JULIA KROEH.

Orange, N. J., July 13, 1915.